

A BOY THROWN TWENTY FEET

Horse Falls on Him and Baby in a Carriage and Only Horse Is Hurt.

SAILORS SWEEP FROM DECK

The Captain of Schooner Taulane Tells of Rough Experiences at Sea.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

NORFOLK, VA., February 12.—(1688) Moore, 17 years old, son of Mallory Moore, of Portsmouth, had an almost miraculous escape from death this morning. He was riding a horse bare-back, with a halter, and at the crossing of the street car tracks, on High Street at Dinwiddie, an out-going car ran into the horse, hurling the animal twenty feet to the sidewalk. He fell on the boy and on a baby carriage, but neither young Moore nor the baby was hurt. The only injury was to the horse, which had its legs skinned. The driver of the car was broken. Young Moore went home to get clean clothing. His escape was remarkable and that of the infant, on top of whose perambulator horse and rider fell, was miraculous.

The house occupied by J. Q. Boyer at Glenmont, was destroyed by fire this morning. Mr. and Mrs. Boyer were both absent from home, having left their children alone in the house. The origin of the fire is unknown, except that the little ones were playing with matches. The dwelling and all the household effects were a total loss, and the insurance was nominal.

SWEET OVERBOARD.
Two sailors were swept from the deck of the schooner George Taulane, during the storm last night. Both of them were recovered, but one with his back broken, the other badly bruised. Captain William Taulane, who was seeking a new crew, and told the story of the storm, which was the worst he ever saw. He says that a great comber carried everything movable from the deck, including the two seamen who caught a line and were saved from being carried to sea. They were both sent to the hospital. The schooner was bound from Philadelphia for Brunswick, Ga., with a cargo of coal. She is a three-masted vessel of 285 tons. She is not injured and will proceed with a new crew when the storm abates.

DEATH OF FORTY-FOUR.

The body of Ezekiah Patterson, colored, was dragged from the water at Common's Dock to-day. The man has been missing since Thursday from the tug Lamberman, on which he slept. He is supposed to have fallen overboard while supporting the tug at night. He had no home and no relatives. He fell overboard at the same place seven weeks ago, but was rescued by Policeman Brinkley.

BREACH OF CONTRACT.

Attorney Charles H. Burr Served
With Papers as About to Sail.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
NORFOLK, VA., February 12.—J. E. Cole entered suit to-day against Charles H. Burr, of Philadelphia, for $50,000, alleging breach of contract. The notice was served by the United States deputy marshal as Mr. Burr was going aboard the boat to leave Norfolk for Philadelphia to-night. Mr. Cole is an attorney and he alleges that he sold the Bay Shore road to Charles H. Burr, and that the latter has refused to comply with the contract, and has made efforts to buy the same property from other persons.

SCHOONER ASHORE.

Crew of the Jennie Lockwood Taken Off in Breeches Buoy.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
NORFOLK, VA., February 12.—The three-masted schooner Jennie Lockwood, of Thomaston, Maine, Captain Haworth, commanding, a vessel of 375 tons, which sailed from Boston, light, for Fernandina, is ashore near Pea Island life-saving station, on the North Carolina coast, about thirty miles north of Cape Hatteras, and near New Inlet. The crew of the schooner, numbering seven men, was taken off in safety in the breeches buoy by the life-savers, and are being cared for at Pea Island station.

The vessel, at last accounts, was high on the beach, and was reported to be in fair condition. The wind, which reached a velocity of fifty-six miles an hour last night at Cape Hatteras, was at 5 o'clock this morning, blowing at Cape Henry from the northeast, forty-four miles an hour, and was hanging over the sea and great waves were rolling ashore and breaking on the beach.

The Staunton Charter.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
STAUNTON, VA., February 12.—At a meeting of the Board of Trade last evening, Mr. Clarke Worthington reported as to his trip to Richmond to secure the passage of a bill for changing Staunton from a second to a first-class city. He said there was no opposition to the bill after he reached Richmond, and that he was not aware until he returned to Staunton that the bill changed the city charter, and took from the city the privilege of electing a police justice.

Holding for Judge Nicol.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
LEESBURG, VA., February 12.—Judge Lewis C. Bailey, of the Corporation Court of Alexandria, is holding the Circuit Court of Loudoun in the absence of Judge C. E. Nicol, who is hearing the Richmond annexation case in that city.

Sloan's Liniment
For Tonsillitis
Price 25¢ 50¢ & $1.00

Is Baby Growing
In Health and Strength?

Ozomulsion

The Cod Liver Oil Emulsion "Par Excellence."

Is the most important essential for all

Nursing Mothers

because it nourishes and provides the proper supply of food upon which the Baby Must Depend for Growth and Strength.

For the Mother, Ozomulsion is an appetizer and a tonic, increasing the desire for Food, promoting the functions of the Digestive Organs, Highly Nutritious, Easily Digested, quickly converted into Blood, and rapidly Recruits the Wasted Energies of the System.

Beneficial Results are Obtained after the First Dose.

There are two sizes—8-oz. and 16-oz. Bottles; the Formula is printed in 7 languages on each.

OZOMULSION LABORATORIES

58 Pine St., New York.

CHARGED WITH MURDER BY CORONER'S JURY

Threw Lamp at Woman and Would Let No One Assist Her.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
NORFOLK, VA., February 12.—Louis Brown, the son of Charles Brown, formerly the keeper of the hotel at High and Water Streets, Portsmouth, was charged with murder by the coroner's jury to-day. There was an inquest into the death of Flossie Reese, who died a few days ago at the St. Vincent Hospital. The evidence was that they had been quarrelling and fighting at her house, No. 14 Washington Street, because he demanded all of the money she had. At night, of December 30, he threw a lighted lamp at her which broke on her head and set her hair and clothes on fire.

He prevented the other inmates of the house from giving the alarm, crying and saying: "Let her burn to death." When the firemen and the police arrived the woman was burned horribly, and was sent to the hospital, and Brown was sent to jail to await the result. The flesh from the arms, shoulders and breast of the woman, but she recovered till she died of blood-poison and exhaustion. They were both addicted to the use of opium, and Brown was demanding money from her with which to buy morphine.

MORTALLY WOUNDED.

Negroes Put Brakes on Freight Train to Wreck It.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
SHEPHERD, VA., February 12.—Presumably for the purpose of wrecking the late Norfolk and Western passenger train, three negroes last night applied brakes to a freight train on which they were riding and brought it to a standstill. The train was stopped on a track where it was to have been wrecked. The men, Charles Stetson later, in seeking to escape, was shot through the body, and it is supposed mortally wounded by Constable James Planton Dales.

CREMATED IN HIS HOME.

Man Goes Into Burning Home, Thinking His Child There.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
FINNEY, ACCOMAC COUNTY, VA., February 12.—Early Sunday morning while the members of his family were still in bed, J. L. McKeith, who had been drinking heavily since Saturday, was sleeping in his house which caught fire. He was aroused and forced out by a neighbor who had discovered the flames, and thinking that his child was in the house he returned to rescue it and received injuries from which he died last night.

Fredericksburg Notes.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
FREDERICKSBURG, VA., February 12.—A competitive examination for the purpose of selecting a candidate to be nominated by Congressman W. A. Jones from the First District, at the United States Military Academy at West Point, will be held in this city on Wednesday, March 28th. The examination will be conducted by three competent examiners, to be named by Congressman Jones, and will take place in one of the rooms of Fredericksburg College between the hours 10 A. M. and 4 P. M. Only young men residents of the First District between the ages of seventeen and twenty-two are eligible to take the examination.

A new Baptist church has been organized at Rapidan, but a pastor has not yet been called.

Captain Willard D. Newell, of Irvington, United States Army, has received orders for transfer from Fort Flagler, Washington State, to the Philippine Islands.

Hon. Thomas W. Murphy, of Westmoreland county, has purchased the estate known as "Barnesville," in that county, from Mr. Joseph N. Arnest, of Baltimore.

Miss Nora Virginia Revere, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Revere, of Lancaster county, will be married to Mr. John C. Marsh at Providence Baptist Church, in that county, on February 21st, at 6:30 P. M.

Pittsylvania Supervisors.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
CLINTON, VA., February 12.—The Board of County Supervisors Friday ordered five road machines to be operated on the public roads of Pittsylvania from March first to December first. John C. Keatts, W. L. Betterton, W. H. Hedrick and J. F. Grimes, Jr., were elected road masters.

Three thousand seven hundred and fifty dollars appropriated for working the roads for the first quarter and $50 was allowed for repairing the bridge over Banister River near Banister Mills, and $2,000 transferred from the general county fund to the sinking fund.

Three supervisors, appointed a committee to examine the county jail, reported same in good condition. Dr. George L. Smith was allowed $139 as physician to the county Alms House for the past year.

Benner—Stettelmeyer.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
WINCHESTER, VA., February 12.—Miss Ada Stettelmeyer, daughter of John Stettelmeyer, a widely known land-owner of this county, and John Benner, also of the county, were married here this afternoon by Rev. S. D. Skelton, of the United Brethren Church. An old-time Virginia supper and dance was held to-night at the bride's home.

THE BATTLEFIELD PARK MOVEMENT

The Commissioner Elects Captain Carter R. Bishop Chairman.

RESOLUTIONS TO CONGRESS

Mr. Simon Seward Resigns As President of Board of Aldermen.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
PETERSBURG, VA., February 12.—The Battlefield Park Commission held its first meeting to-day at R. B. Davis's office, elected Carter R. Bishop chairman and drafted resolutions which are to be introduced in the House of Representatives by Congressman R. G. Southall, authorizing the President to appoint a Federal commission, composed of a United States engineer, a Union veteran and a Confederate veteran, who shall come to Petersburg, determine the propriety and advisability of the proposed park, and report to the President.

Mr. Simon Seward's resignation as president of the Board of Aldermen was laid on the table at the meeting last evening, on motion of Mr. Moore, who said that Mr. Seward was too valuable a member for the Board to lose. Ill health was the cause of Mr. Seward's resignation. He has been in the South nearly all winter on that account. W. U. Jones is the Board's vice-president.

The bill to amend Petersburg's charter, introduced in the State Senate to-day by Senator Charles T. Lister, of this city, was provided for by a resolution of the City Council at last week's meeting, concurred in by the Board of Aldermen last evening and is strongly endorsed by the members of both bodies. The measure was prepared by City Attorney George Mason.

Sheriff Boisseau, of Prince George county, was in Petersburg to-day and the expiration of that time will vacate at their own cost and charges in addition to the above penalties. This disease has only appeared at the home of Mr. Eggleston in this county, a few miles west of Meherrin, Va. Several members of his family have died of the disease. Nearly all of the cases have been confined to Lunenburg.

Compulsory Vaccination.
(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
GREEN BAY, VA., February 12.—On account of several cases of smallpox, and as a precautionary measure the board of supervisors, by order of the county board of health of Prince Edward county, has ordered the vaccination of all residents of this county within twenty days from February 12th. A fine of $10 has been ordered imposed on any person refusing or in default of the county jail not exceeding six months.

The vaccine matter will be furnished all parties upon application to the board of health until the expiration of twenty days.

A person found not vaccinated at the expiration of that time will be vaccinated at their own cost and charges in addition to the above penalties. This disease has only appeared at the home of Mr. Eggleston in this county, a few miles west of Meherrin, Va. Several members of his family have died of the disease. Nearly all of the cases have been confined to Lunenburg.

Picture of Thurman.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
NORFOLK, VA., February 12.—No further arrests have been made in the Dolson trunk murder case. Chief of Police Housh, has received from East Liverpool, Ohio, a much better picture of Leo C. Thurman, the alleged murderer, than the first one received.

A large number of circulars, bearing this likeness of Thurman, have been sent out with the hope that they will effect the capture of Thurman. Chief Coughlin this morning sent a telegram to Sheriff Frank H. Creech, of Barnwell, S. C., asking him to hold the suspect under arrest in the place until a picture of Thurman can be sent from Norfolk for comparison. The chief does not believe that the Barnwell suspect is Thurman, but he prefers to be sure of this before he orders the suspect's release.

Augusta Wants Faulkner.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
LYNCHBURG, VA., February 12.—Representatives of the Chamber of Commerce of Augusta, Ga., it was learned to-day, were here yesterday in conference with John A. Faulkner, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce of Lynchburg, Va., to make him a flattering offer to go to that city as secretary of the Chamber of Commerce. Mr. Faulkner has the offer under advisement, but it is not believed the Board of Trade will allow him to leave here, if the inducement is a financial one.

He was just elected last night by the board as secretary for another year, and he is a most efficient official.

Oppose Free Delivery.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
OSBORN, GA., VA., February 12.—An effort is being made to establish a free delivery routes from Clintwood to adjacent sections, but the effort is meeting with considerable opposition from the people within the delivery of Norland postoffice, to which it is proposed to extend a route. The people of the neighborhood are petitioning the department in regard to their wishes in this matter. They are satisfied with the delivery of their mail matter from the post-office, and point out that the road over which a part of this proposed route will extend is so rough that it would be impassable for a delivery wagon during the greater part of the winter.

A BOILER BURSTED.

Dwelling Burns While the Family Sleeps.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
SPRAY, N. C., February 12.—On account of a boiler bursting in the engine room of the Spray Woolen Mills last week, the company had to shut down operations for a few days, but have resumed business.

Mr. T. A. Smith, formerly with the Riverside Cotton Mills of Danville, has accepted a position with Leaksville Cotton Mills, as boss weaver, and has entered upon his new duties.

A dwelling house owned by the Nantuxet Mills, and occupied by Mr. E. J. Taylor, was destroyed by fire Sunday night. At the time the occupants of the house were fast asleep. Some one passing by saw the flames, ran to the house, broke open the front door, and woke Mr. Pruitt and family just in time to save their lives. No insurance on his household goods.

Bidding for Orphanage.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
SALISBURY, N. C., February 12.—The citizens of Salisbury and vicinity are making strenuous efforts to have the proposed orphanage, which is to be located at A. M. located in this city, and a liberal proposition has been formulated to be presented to the State Council of this State, which would include the purchase of ten acres of land admirably located, and the building of a new orphanage, to be completed by a cash donation of $2,000. Salisbury is a stronghold of the order and no efforts will be spared in locating the orphanage here.

Held Up in His Own Store.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
HENDERSON, N. C., February 12.—Mr. J. H. Henderson, a local merchant in Henderson, hearing some one in his store last night at 12 o'clock, went to investigate. As he walked in two pistols were pointed at his head and he was relieved of seventy-nine dollars and a watch. No arrests.

Keep the medicine

chest supplied with old
joe. A fine old whiskey,
guaranteed medicinally
pure. Good doctors everywhere recommend it, full measure-convenient package.

moderate price—
sold everywhere

"b. & b."
Atlanta.

Keep the medicine
chest supplied with old
joe. A fine old whiskey,
guaranteed medicinally
pure. Good doctors everywhere recommend it, full measure-convenient
package.

moderate price—
sold everywhere

"b. & b."
Atlanta.

Keep the medicine
chest supplied with old
joe. A fine old whiskey,
guaranteed medicinally
pure. Good doctors everywhere recommend it, full measure-convenient
package.

moderate price—
sold everywhere

"b. & b."
Atlanta.

Keep the medicine
chest supplied with old
joe. A fine old whiskey,
guaranteed medicinally
pure. Good doctors everywhere recommend it, full measure-convenient
package.

moderate price—
sold everywhere

"b. & b."
Atlanta.

been sent in and some are awaiting the results with much anxiety.

PETERSBURG, VA., A rich deposit of gold has been found on the farm of Mr. A. C. Bell, near Blenheim, and the analysis indicates a large per cent. of the metal. Arrangements are being made to market the deposit. The vein is large and extends to adjoining farms.

NORFOLK, VA.—The Norfolk and Western Railroad Company has a force of more than a hundred men at work on the new yards in South Norfolk. The system consists of about thirty tracks, which are one mile in length. The new yard being at the Seaboard yards crossing and extends to the Money Point switch.

STAUNTON, VA.—Mayor W. H. Landon has returned to the Council, without his approval, a resolution adopted February 6th authorizing and empowering the president of the Council to employ special attorneys to take such steps necessary to ascertain the habits of Staunton. The mayor says the people of Staunton have been trying to get the Council to make this higher city. He thinks the council correctly taken.

A NEW SECRETARY.

The Chamber of Commerce Appoints Committee.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
PETERSBURG, VA., February 12.—The board of governors of the Chamber of Commerce, to-night elected H. P. Stratton, secretary to succeed N. T. Patterson, who had resigned, and instructed Stratton to appoint a committee of five, who in accordance with a request from Congressman Southall, shall at his call, appear before a congressional committee in behalf of an appropriation for the enlargement of the postoffice building here.

The secretary was also instructed to try to obtain from the railroad company and trip ticket rates between Petersburg and Northern cities. No report was received from the committee in charge of the work for a new hotel.

Compulsory Vaccination.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
GREEN BAY, VA., February 12.—On account of several cases of smallpox, and as a precautionary measure the board of supervisors, by order of the county board of health of Prince Edward county, has ordered the vaccination of all residents of this county within twenty days from February 12th. A fine of $10 has been ordered imposed on any person refusing or in default of the county jail not exceeding six months.

The vaccine matter will be furnished all parties upon application to the board of health until the expiration of twenty days.

A person found not vaccinated at the expiration of that time will be vaccinated at their own cost and charges in addition to the above penalties. This disease has only appeared at the home of Mr. Eggleston in this county, a few miles west of Meherrin, Va. Several members of his family have died of the disease. Nearly all of the cases have been confined to Lunenburg.

Picture of Thurman.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
NORFOLK, VA., February 12.—No further arrests have been made in the Dolson trunk murder case. Chief of Police Housh, has received from East Liverpool, Ohio, a much better picture of Leo C. Thurman, the alleged murderer, than the first one received.

A large number of circulars, bearing this likeness of Thurman, have been sent out with the hope that they will effect the capture of Thurman. Chief Coughlin this morning sent a telegram to Sheriff Frank H. Creech, of Barnwell, S. C., asking him to hold the suspect under arrest in the place until a picture of Thurman can be sent from Norfolk for comparison. The chief does not believe that the Barnwell suspect is Thurman, but he prefers to be sure of this before he orders the suspect's release.

Augusta Wants Faulkner.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
LYNCHBURG, VA., February 12.—Representatives of the Chamber of Commerce of Augusta, Ga., it was learned to-day, were here yesterday in conference with John A. Faulkner, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce of Lynchburg, Va., to make him a flattering offer to go to that city as secretary of the Chamber of Commerce. Mr. Faulkner has the offer under advisement, but it is not believed the Board of Trade will allow him to leave here, if the inducement is a financial one.

He was just elected last night by the board as secretary for another year, and he is a most efficient official.

Oppose Free Delivery.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
OSBORN, GA., VA., February 12.—An effort is being made to establish a free delivery routes from Clintwood to adjacent sections, but the effort is meeting with considerable opposition from the people within the delivery of Norland postoffice, to which it is proposed to extend a route. The people of the neighborhood are petitioning the department in regard to their wishes in this matter. They are satisfied with the delivery of their mail matter from the post-office, and point out that the road over which a part of this proposed route will extend is so rough that it would be impassable for a delivery wagon during the greater part of the winter.

A BOILER BURSTED.

Dwelling Burns While the Family Sleeps.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
SPRAY, N. C., February 12.—On account of a boiler bursting in the engine room of the Spray Woolen Mills last week, the company had to shut down operations for a few days, but have resumed business.

Mr. T. A. Smith, formerly with the Riverside Cotton Mills of Danville, has accepted a position with Leaksville Cotton Mills, as boss weaver, and has entered upon his new duties.

A dwelling house owned by the Nantuxet Mills, and occupied by Mr. E. J. Taylor, was destroyed by fire Sunday night. At the time the occupants of the house were fast asleep. Some one passing by saw the flames, ran to the house, broke open the front door, and woke Mr. Pruitt and family just in time to save their lives. No insurance on his household goods.

Bidding for Orphanage.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
SALISBURY, N. C., February 12.—The citizens of Salisbury and vicinity are making strenuous efforts to have the proposed orphanage, which is to be located at A. M. located in this city, and a liberal proposition has been formulated to be presented to the State Council of this State, which would include the purchase of ten acres of land admirably located, and the building of a new orphanage, to be completed by a cash donation of $2,000. Salisbury is a stronghold of the order and no efforts will be spared in locating the orphanage here.

Held Up in His Own Store.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
HENDERSON, N. C., February 12.—Mr. J. H. Henderson, a local merchant in Henderson, hearing some one in his store last night at 12 o'clock, went to investigate. As he walked in two pistols were pointed at his head and he was relieved of seventy-nine dollars and a watch. No arrests.

been sent in and some are awaiting the results with much anxiety.

PETERSBURG, VA., A rich deposit of gold has been found on the farm of Mr. A. C. Bell, near Blenheim, and the analysis indicates a large per cent. of the metal. Arrangements are being made to market the deposit. The vein is large and extends to adjoining farms.

NORFOLK, VA.—The Norfolk and Western Railroad Company has a force of more than a hundred men at work on the new yards in South Norfolk. The system consists of about thirty tracks, which are one mile in length. The new yard being at the Seaboard yards crossing and extends to the Money Point switch.

STAUNTON, VA.—Mayor W. H. Landon has returned to the Council, without his approval, a resolution adopted February 6th authorizing and empowering the president of the Council to employ special attorneys to take such steps necessary to ascertain the habits of Staunton. The mayor says the people of Staunton have been trying to get the Council to make this higher city. He thinks the council correctly taken.

A NEW SECRETARY.

The Chamber of Commerce Ap-
points Committee.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
PETERSBURG, VA., February 12.—The board of governors of the Chamber of Commerce, to-night elected H. P. Stratton, secretary to succeed N. T. Patterson, who had resigned, and instructed Stratton to appoint a committee of five, who in accordance with a request from Congressman Southall, shall at his call, appear before a congressional committee in behalf of an appropriation for the enlargement of the postoffice building here.

The secretary was also instructed to try to obtain from the railroad company and trip ticket rates between Petersburg and Northern cities. No report was received from the committee in charge of the work for a new hotel.

Compulsory Vaccination.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
GREEN BAY, VA., February 12.—On account of several cases of smallpox, and as a precautionary measure the board of supervisors, by order of the county board of health of Prince Edward county, has ordered the vaccination of all residents of this county within twenty days from February 12th. A fine of $10 has been ordered imposed on any person refusing or in default of the county jail not exceeding six months.

The vaccine matter will be furnished all parties upon application to the board of health until the expiration of twenty days.

A person found not vaccinated at the expiration of that time will be vaccinated at their own cost and charges in addition to the above penalties. This disease has only appeared at the home of Mr. Eggleston in this county, a few miles west of Meherrin, Va. Several members of his family have died of the disease. Nearly all of the cases have been confined to Lunenburg.

Picture of Thurman.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
NORFOLK, VA., February 12.—No further arrests have been made in the Dolson trunk murder case. Chief of Police Housh, has received from East Liverpool, Ohio, a much better picture of Leo C. Thurman, the alleged murderer, than the first one received.

A large number of circulars, bearing this likeness of Thurman, have been sent out with the hope that they will effect the capture of Thurman. Chief Coughlin this morning sent a telegram to Sheriff Frank H. Creech, of Barnwell, S. C., asking him to hold the suspect under arrest in the place until a picture of Thurman can be sent from Norfolk for comparison. The chief does not believe that the Barnwell suspect is Thurman, but he prefers to be sure of this before he orders the suspect's release.

Augusta Wants Faulkner.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
LYNCHBURG, VA., February 12.—Representatives of the Chamber of Commerce of Augusta, Ga., it was learned to-day, were here yesterday in conference with John A. Faulkner, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce of Lynchburg, Va., to make him a flattering offer to go to that city as secretary of the Chamber of Commerce. Mr. Faulkner has the offer under advisement, but it is not believed the Board of Trade will allow him to leave here, if the inducement is a financial one.

He was just elected last night by the board as secretary for another year, and he is a most efficient official.

Oppose Free Delivery.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
OSBORN, GA., VA., February 12.—An effort is being made to establish a free delivery routes from Clintwood to adjacent sections, but the effort is meeting with considerable opposition from the people within the delivery of Norland postoffice, to which it is proposed to extend a route. The people of the neighborhood are petitioning the department in regard to their wishes in this matter. They are satisfied with the delivery of their mail matter from the post-office, and point out that the road over which a part of this proposed route will extend is so rough that it would be impassable for a delivery wagon during the greater part of the winter.